To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing you pertaining two amendments I am making to my 1988 Financial Disclosure Statement.

The first concerns an omission that you pointed out which I have corrected. I had failed to mark the Spouse and Dependent Disclosure Exemption box at the bottom of Page 1. It has now been amended by marking the box "no."

The other amended portion of my statement is on Page 2 under Section 111. Holdings - Stocks and Bonds. The category should have been marked "F" instead of "B". It was a mistake caused by a typographical error and has now been corrected on my amended form.

Thank you for your time and attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Marilyn Lloyd

HC

The Honorable Julian C. Dixon
Chairman
Committee on Standards of
Official Conduct
Room HT-2
U.S. Capitol
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Congressman Dixon:

Please allow this letter to serve as an amendment to my Financial Disclosure Statement for 1988 (FORM A) filed with the Committee on May 12, 1989.

The amendment corrects information excluded from "Section II. Income" under "A. Source." The entry stating an income source of $300 from the American Nuclear Energy Council as an honorarium should also include under "disposition" $300 to charity. That is, I donated the entire $300 honorarium to charity.

Thank you for your kind assistance in amending my statement to reflect the above change.

With kindest regards and best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Jim McCrery

Dear Sir:

By this letter, I amend my Financial Disclosure Statement for 1988 to provide additional information about a holding of real property reported for 1987 but not included in the 1988 Statement. The property in question is a 150-acre farm located in Gilmer County, West Virginia; I held one-half ownership of the property. This farm was sold in July, 1987, but I did not receive the proceeds due me from that transaction until 28 December 1988. The income from the sale was erroneously omitted from my Financial Disclosure Statement for 1988 and is herewith reported as follows:

Sale of real property	7-15-87	B
Receipt of sale proceeds	12-28-88	B

Failure to report this transaction was inadvertent. Thank you for calling it to my attention.

Sincerely,

Jim McDermott

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Pursuant to your letter on May 17, 1989 which identified a deficiency on my financial disclosure statement, I am providing clarification of the liability listed as Pete Hagfeldt, Scobey, Montana.

The type of indebtedness is a contract for deed for farmland real estate. You should be aware that I have listed this loan in this way for the last several years. This is the first year that the Ethics Committee has called this matter to my attention.

I hope that this provides you with the information requested.

Sincerely,

Ron

Dear Sir:

My Financial Disclosure Statement for 1988 was filed on May 15, 1989. I hereby amend Section II.A to correct a typographical error and Sections II.B and III to clarify the sources of the Morgan-Stanley interest and dividends and the Merrill-Lynch dividends.

The honorarium received from the Securities Industry Association on December 27, 1988, was $2000, all of which was donated to charity.

My wife maintains an investment account with Morgan-Stanley, in which securities are held in "street name" and interest is paid on uninvested funds. The interest reported from Morgan-Stanley is the cumulative total for 1988 on such uninvested balances. The dividend payments were received on the following holdings:

Baxter International	$ 187
B.F. Goodrich	1505
Delta Airlines	300
Olin	675
Kimberly Clark	1000
Polaroid	375
Pennwalt	600

Dear Mr. Anderson:

I am enclosing a copy of my Financial Disclosure Statement for 1988, the original of which was hand-carried to the Office of Records and Registration on May 12, 1989. I was first made aware that this information was either lost or misplaced by your office on Monday, May 22, 1989, when organizations requesting disclosure statements of Members of Congress pointed out that only one page of my statement was included. That particular page and a cover letter was sent to Records and Registration seperately, and a receipt for that information was received in my office late this afternoon.

I am disappointed that I was not notified that my report was "missing" at close of business on Monday, May 15, 1989, when the report was due. Furthermore, I am dismayed that upon receipt of an amendment to my report, no one in your office took the initiative to contact me concerning the "missing" report.

Very truly yours,

Austin J. Murphy

Dear Donn:

The purpose of this letter is to amend my 1988 Financial Disclosure Statement as follows:

III. HOLDINGS

Identity	Category
Chevy Chase Savings & Loan	C
Wright Patman Congressional Credit Union	B

With regard to the first item, a certificate of deposit was purchased with funds belonging to my mother for her purposes. While in reality the certificate is hers, it is being held in my name and, therefore, should have been reported.

The second item was not originally reported as I did not realize it was in excess of the amount to be disclosed.

Sincerely,

Jim Oberstar

Official Conduct
Suite HT-2, U. S. Capitol
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Mr. Dixon:

I have received your letter of May 15, 1989, requesting clarification of two items on my Financial Disclosure Statement filed on May 11, 1989, with the Clerk, U.S. House of Representatives.

Please amend the statement to include the following:

Part II. INCOME, B. UNEARNED INCOME
Source: Parker Funeral Home & Affiliates, Brookhaven, Mississippi.
Type: 1099 - Non-employee Compensation
(Explanation: Compensation for services rendered other than as manager.)
Category: E

Part III. HOLDINGS
Identity: American Funeral Assurance Company, Amory, Mississippi. (202 shares)
Category: B

Part IV. TRANSACTIONS
Brief Description: American Funeral Assurance Company, Amory, Mississippi.
Category: Stock purchase.
(Explanation: Enclosed please find a copy of a letter from American Funeral Assurance Company indicating how stock is purchased on a quarterly basis in lieu of dividends.)

On your Checklist - Form A, you asked that we list under TRANSACTIONS the acquisition of the additional shares of AFA stock. In response, I have enclosed another letter from AFA setting out the particulars of a stock split which resulted in the additional 1818 shares. In reviewing the General Guidelines, I now realize that this stock split should be reported on the 1989 report instead of on the current report.

Thank you for your assistance in making these amendments to the report.

Sincerely,

Mike Parker
